

At Algoma Steel Inc. we are committed to consistently meeting or exceeding customer expectations in product and service by:

- Operating an effective quality management system that ensures quality processes are developed, followed in accordance with stated requirements and continuously improved; and
- Developing and maintaining a skilled workforce to ensure every member of the organization is equipped and capable of fulfilling our quality objectives.

Michael McQuade
President & Chief Executive Officer

January 1, 2022